There have been 29 new cases filed in the office of the clerk of the superior court for the first Tuesday in November. The following were filed on Wedenssday:

Charles H. Hawes of Hanover, N. H., has sued the Royal Limer Co., Inc., and Mark L. Gilbert and J. Elmer Ayers of Stomington for $5.000, and asking that the contract be declared void, the delivering up of two $500 notes and a check for $250, as well as an injunction restraining the defendants from negotiating the notes or check.

It is claimed that he was induced to invest in $2 shares of the preferred and $4 of the common stock of the company and that the financial condition of the company was misrepresented. He gave $1,900 in cash and agreed to pay the balance, $3.200, before November 15, 1811. It is ciaimed the shares were worthless, that the company is heavily indebted and insolvent, and that the property was all the time mortgaged for $20,000.

On or about September 1, 1911, he was induced to pay the balance, $3.200, before November 15, 1811. It is ciaimed the shares were worthless, that the company is heavily indebted and insolvent, and that the property was all the time mortgaged for $20,000.

On or about September 1, 1911, he was induced to purchase five preferred shares and 77 common shares for $1,750. He gave $750 in payment in cash and two notes for $100 payable in 90 days.
